NATIONAL WATERWAYS FOUNDATION RECEIVES
GRAPHIC DESIGN AWARDS

Washington, DC – The National Waterways Foundation (NWF) has won two graphic design awards for its 2017 Overview Brochure. The 2017 American Graphic Design Award selected NWF’s brochure as Outstanding within the top 1,500 submissions among 10,000 total entries, and the 2017 Summit Creative Award Finalist in the Business to Business category. The NWF brochure was selected from 5,000 submissions from 24 countries in that category.

NWF’s Overview Brochure was designed by Howell Creative Group in Williamsburg, Virginia.

The mission of the National Waterways Foundation is to develop the intellectual and factual arguments for an efficient, well-funded and secure inland waterways system.
